SAN CARLOS SHELLED VIRGINIAN IS HONORED

Fort of That Name Target of the German Cruiser Panther.

SHIP SHOT ONE HOUR

The Object Fired at, Which is About Twenty-One Miles From Maracaibo, Venezuela, Was Not Injured Seriously.

Maracaibo, Venezuela, Jan. 19.—Fort San Carlos at the entrance of Lake Maracaibo, was shelled for an hour Saturday afternoon by the German cruiser Panther. The fort returned the fire with four guns and the Panther withdrew in the direction of Curacao.

Fort San Carlos is twenty-one miles from Maracaibo and commands the entrance to the lake of the inner bay.

The correspondent of the Associated Press here has received the following letter from General Bello, the commander of the fort:

"Saturday afternoon at 12:30, Fort San Carlos was attacked and shelled, without any provocation on our part, without previous notification or the delivering of an ultimatum, by the German cruiser Panther, which tried to force the entrance. After a fight lasting an hour, during which the fort used only four guns, the Panther was obliged to abandon the fight and retreated in the direction of Curacao. The fort has suffered no damage and only three men were wounded."

There have been popular demonstrations on the streets here as a result of the shelling of the fort.

MANY PLAGUE VICTIMS.

One Hundred and Seven Deaths Have Occurred This Week.

Mazatlan, Mex., Jan. 19.—There have been 107 deaths from the plague since Jan. 1. The deaths on the 15th numbered seven and many new cases are reported. The number of wooden houses burned is 106. Two coaches in which plague stricken people sought to escape from the city will be burned. A young workman's mother died from the plague at the family house. Same sanitary inspectors entered the house and took possession of the corpse. The young man was sent to the department of observation. The man's wife and sister were absent at the time of the inspector's visit and afterwards disappeared, fearing to be taken to the lazareto. That morning one of the women was found dead from the plague and the other has not been heard of. The young man has not been attacked by the epidemic, but has lost his mind.

MENTAL FATIGUE.

An Apparatus That Will Measure Same to Be Exhibited at St. Louis.

Berlin, Jan. 19.—Among the curious exhibits that the Prussian ministry of public instruction will include in its educational display at the St. Louis Exposition is an apparatus for measuring mental fatigue, which is widely employed. It is called an aesthesiometer, and measures the sensitiveness of the skin which corresponds directly to brain fatigue, the sensitiveness diminishing as the mind wears.

LITTLE WORK DONE.

Public Schools and a Number of Private Ones Closed and Banks, as Well as Courts, Observe the Occasion.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 19.—Appropriate exercises were held in this city in honor of the birthday of General R. E. Lee. A special programme was carried out at the state capitol under the auspices of the different organizations of Confederate veterans, participated in by all the local patriotic bodies and the general public. The day was observed as a holiday by all the banks, state offices and schools in the city.

Mobile Does Not Forget Him.

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 19.—In accordance with the annual custom, this city appropriately remembered the natal day of the great Virginian, General Robert E. Lee. All of the public and many private schools were closed, as were also the various banks and courts.

TWO LIVES LOST.

The Destruction of Apartment House at Cleveland, O., Jan. 19.—Fire destroyed two adjoining apartment houses near the corner of Euclid avenue and Andrews street, East Cleveland, resulting in the death of at least two persons and the injury of several others. The dead: Mrs. Guy Norton, 20 years of age; Mrs. Jessie Dickey, widow, 45 years of age. The injured: Clara Jackson, a servant girl; Guy Norton, Rev. N. W. Shoup. The origin of the fire is unknown. The fifty tenants in the two buildings were asleep when the flames broke out.

Panic ensued among them when they were finally aroused, and many were rescued with great difficulty, nearly all escaping in their night clothing. The total pecuniary loss is about $60,000; partially insured.

IS WANING.

Attendance at Coal Strike Commission Hearing Is Small.

Philadelphia, Jan. 19.—That the interest in the proceedings of the anthracite coal strike commission is waning was strikingly illustrated when the commission opened its thirty-seventh day's session. There were eighteen spectators present, not more than half of whom were witnesses. Of the twenty-five lawyers representing the coal companies only five were in attendance, and only one of the nine attorneys for the miners were on hand when the proceedings began. Colonel Phillips, general superintendent of the mining department of Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railway, who was on the witness stand Saturday, was the first witness called.

Licensing Act a Success.

New York, Jan. 19.—Seldom has legislation met more immediate success than the new licensing act, says the London correspondent of the Tribune. For once the law would seem to have got even with the great army of toppers. Touched in their tenderest spot, these interesting individuals are forswearing drink with an alacrity which seems to show conclusively that there is, after all, some virtue in what was once contemptuously called by a great statesman "grand motherly legislation."

Had Investments in Montana.

Butte, Mont., Jan. 19.—Ex-Mayor Hewitt, who died in New York, had nearly a million dollars invested in various enterprises in the state of Montana. Mr. Hewitt was one of the original promoters of the Great Falls smelter, which was afterward consolidated with the East Helena works under the name of the United Smelting and Refining company, of which company he was manager and for many years a director.

Four Men Cremated.

Morrissey, B. C., Jan. 19.—Four men were burned to death in a hotel fire here. Four others are missing, and it is believed they also perished in the flames. The Spooner hotel, leased by A. Johnson, caught fire by the overturning of a lamp in the barroom. The proprietor aroused the guests, most of whom escaped in their night clothes. All were coal miners or prospectors.

BRYAN, TEXAS, JAN. 20, 1903

A new department entitled "Commerce-labor department," has been added to the national government.

Keep your hands clean when you go out burglarizing. An Austrian scientific man has discovered a plan to detect thieves and burglars by their finger prints.

Judge A. W. Terrell has introduced a bill providing for the extension of the Australian ballot system to all parts of the state, and making it apply to primary as well as to general elections. It is a very stringent measure, with severe penalties for violations of its radical provisions.

Ike Standifer has introduced a good roads bill which provides for working short term (five years and under) convicts on the public roads. His idea is to have four good roads built from the county seat to the county line, with convict labor to assist the county authorities. Not a bad idea. Four good roads would be a valuable object lesson.

A public library commission for Texas is wanted by the State Teachers' Association, the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, and many public spirited citizens without reference to organization. The object, among other things, is to establish central depositories for books and literature in various parts of the state. The officers are to be salaried, and we believe the board should be created by the present session of the legislature.

GOVERNOR SAYERS' VIEWS.

What He Says in His Message Regarding the A. and M. College.

The following statements and recommendations regarding the A. and M. College are taken from the message of Gov. Sayers to the legislature now in session. He wisely advocates a special tax for the support of the state university and the A. and M., and proposes that the duties of the agricultural department at Austin be transferred to the College. The first plan would tend to remove these institutions still further from politics, and the latter would make the agricultural department of practical advantage to the state. Gov. Sayers says:

The number of cadets enrolled at the college for the session of 1898-1899 was 332; for the one of 1902-1903 the enrollment was 356—a gain of only twenty-four. Without explanation, this apparent stagnation, numerically considered, may appear strange. The attendance has been somewhat affected by the increase, since 1898-1899, of the minimum age of entrance from 15 to 16 years, and, also, by the requirements of an additional year for admission to the engineering course. This does not, however, fully account for the standstill in a cadet body. The true cause is to be found in the report of the board of directors, in which it appears that there are at present accommodations only for 350 cadets under favorable circumstances; that the dormitories are heated by ordinary stoves, with wood as fuel; that they are without bathing facilities and modern sanitary arrangements; that members of the faculty are compelled to occupy as quarters the rooms intended and needed for other purposes; and that the barns, outhouses, roads, sidewalks and drains are in a dilapidated condition. So long as these disadvantages shall continue, a substantial advance in numbers can not be reasonably expected. If the college is to keep pace with the growth in population of the state and to be worthy the great interests—agricultural and industrial—that it was intended to promote, immediate and adequate provision should be made for putting all improvements and property into the best possible condition, and also, for the erection of additional dormitories, upon the most approved plans, and of the necessary residences for the faculty, so that not less than 1200 cadets may be comfortably quartered and properly instructed. And further, there should be no delay in equipping the college with every facility for theoretical and practical instruction in civil, sanitary, railway and electrical engineering and the textile industries. Nor should the interests of agriculture be neglected. The college should be fully prepared to instruct, by practice and theory, as to farming in all its varied and incidental branches.

The state is undergoing unusual development in every phase of agricultural and industrial life, and great opportunities are now being offered the young men of Texas to engage in the various pursuits of this character; all of which demand a special training that the college should be able to give. Failing in this, its abandonment ought to speedily follow as a needless expense and a travesty upon agricultural and mechanical education.

I do not believe that a wiser step, or one that will insure better and more substantial results, can be taken as to the university and the Agricultural and Mechanical college by the legislature and the people than to make permanent provision, through a self-executing constitutional amendment levying a small annual tax, for their maintenance and development. The effect will be to eliminate these institutions from the biennial appropriation bills, and to insure them certain and increasing incomes. Until this shall be done, they will go limping along at half-starved speed. From what has been said, it must not be understood that work of good character has not been done at the college. On the contrary, those responsible for its administration have, with the funds at their command, accomplished much that has been valuable. It can hardly be a question that the college can more fully, accurately and satisfactorily secure data respecting agricultural conditions and interests than can the department of agriculture. Insurance, statistics and history, to which this duty is now committed by law, but which has, in consequence of the want of proper organization and sufficient means, been unable to do anything in this direction. Therefore, in view of the character of the institution, and of the great importance of agriculture, I have to recommend immediate legislation eliminating agriculture from the department named and transferring it to the Agricultural and Mechanical college, with such jurisdiction, powers and duties as would be conferred upon a department of government, if organized for that purpose and with an appropriation sufficient to enable the college to fully and satisfactorily accomplish what might be fairly expected under the law.

ABRAM S. HEWITT DEAD.

Former Mayor of New York Passes Away Sunday Morning.

New York, Jan. 19.—Abram S. Hewitt, former mayor of New York, and for many years representative in congress, died at 6 o'clock Sunday morning in his eighty-first year, after having been critically ill for ten days. With him at the moment of death were his wife, his three sons and three daughters.

ABRAM S. HEWITT.

Mr. Hewitt, who has been in feeble health for some months, was attacked with obstructive jaundice on January 8, and from the first it was realized by his physicians, Dr. E. L. Keyes and Dr. E. L. Keyes, Jr., that there was practically no hope of the aged patient's recovery. On the following Sunday it was thought Mr. Hewitt could not survive the night and the members of his family were summoned to his bedside, but his wonderful vitality kept him alive for a week longer.

RICH GOLD STRIKE.

It is Said to Be the Greatest Since the Discovery of the Klondike.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 19.—A special to the Times from Dawson says: A tremendously rich strike, the magnitude of which has never been equaled since Bob Henderson told his wonderful story of the Klondike, has been made eighteen miles north of a point on Tanana river, 200 miles from its source. The district is in American discovery.

Circle City has been depopulated, and a wild stampede of prospectors from all the surrounding country is in progress. As yet few have reached the discovered.

The original strike was made on Pedro, a creek running parallel with the Tanana, about eighteen miles from the river. This creek is streaked for miles. Dan McCarthy, a well known Dawsonite, made the discovery on Gold stream, a continuation of Pedro, which has proved to be the richest so far found.

CHINESE LABOR.

Steamship Company Will Take Men—Hans to Mexican Ports.

City of Mexico, Jan. 19.—It is believed that the decision of the management of the Chinese Commercial Steamship company to operate steamers direct between China and the Mexican port of Manzanillo will do much towards solving the problem of securing laborers in Mexico. The representatives of the company state that they can bring a superior class of Chinese laborers to Mexico.

The question of labor is becoming a serious problem in Mexico. Chinese laborers heretofore have been easy to procure, but the difficulty seems to be in securing a class of men who will retain their employment. The officials of the new steamship company insist that they can import a better class of men who will make steady workers. If the company is successful in doing this the question of cheap labor for Mexico will have been solved.

FRIGHTFUL BURNING.

Lighted Lamp Was Hurled in the Face of a Negro Woman.

Paris, Tex., Jan. 19.—Euna Robinson, colored, living on East Booth street, was frightfully burned. In a difficulty with another negro woman at her home, a lighted lamp was seized and hurled at her. The bowl of the lamp struck her in the center of the forehead and was shattered. The oil became ignited and ran in streams of liquid flame down her body, burning her from her head down to the waist.

All of the upper part of her clothing was burned off to the waist, it being impossible to smother the flames. The pigment of the skin, or cuticle, was burned off, leaving her face perfectly white. It is thought the woman is fatally injured.

Cornelia Dinwiddle was arrested and lodged in jail.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 19.—J. H. He has written to the champion and ex-champion making the offer and if satisfactory answers are received he will, he says, at once post a forfeit of $5000 as a guarantee that the contest will take place without interference. He said he did not anticipate interference from the Canadian authorities.

FORMALINE INJECTION.

It is Being Tried on a Young Lady for Blood Poison.

New York, Jan. 17.—The new treatment for blood poisoning by an injection of formaline into the circulation has been begun, in Hahemann hospital on a young woman, whose condition is so grave her life is considered practically lost. What the result of the operation might be, the doctors cannot state. An injection is made at 9:30 and at midnight. One of the doctors, who has been in constant attendance upon her, said there has been absolutely no change in her condition. "But this does not indicate anything at all," he said. "It takes about sixteen hours, I am told by Dr. Barrows, who first tried the treatment, for reaction to become complete."

LEVIS ESTATE.

Considerable Speculation as to Disposition of Four Million Dollars.

San Francisco, Jan. 17.—Considerable speculation has arisen as to the effect the death of Alice Levis may have on the disposition of the property left by her father, Hugh Levis, and the late Mrs. Susan B. Levis. The call says that in accordance with the will made by Hugh Levis shortly before his death almost the entire estate of $4,000,000 passes to his widow, Mrs. Cornelius Levis. When the late Susan B. Levis died she left a large portion of her estate, estimated at $2,500,000, to her grand-daughter, Alice. Under the laws of California this sum now passes to the little son of Hugh and Cornelia B. Levis.

FOLLOWED HIS WIFE.

Lady Passes Away Near Chicago and Her Husband Suicides.

Chicago, Jan. 17.—L. J. Desabla, a prominent truck farmer residing in a suburb of this city, made a desperate successful attempt to commit suicide. His wife had been ill for some time and he declared that if she died he wanted to be buried with her. She died and the husband, after taking a large dose of laudanum, hacked his throat horribly with a large pocket-knife. Mr. Desabla died in a few hours.

Society Man Indicted.

Schenectady, N. Y., Jan. 17.—Hugh J. Fagan, a prominent real estate dealer and one of the leading men in local society, has been indicted by the grand jury for grand larceny. He gave bail in $1000. It is charged that Fagan, who is the owner of the premises occupied by the complainant, Mrs. Mary Adamczak, stole $800 while on a visit for the purpose of collecting rent. He asserts that the charge is an attempt to blackball him.

Girls No Longer Walk.

Berlin, Jan. 17.—A special dispatch from Geneva, Switzerland says: "Principals of a number of girls' schools have complained to the authorities that they no longer take out girls for their usual walks because they are shocked at seeing the crown princess of Saxony walking with M. Giron." The Berlin police have forbidden the sale of post cards having on them portraits of the crown princess and Professor Giron together.

All Doing Well.

New York, Jan. 17.—Seven patients upon whom Dr. Adolf Lorenz operated in this city, and one on which Dr. Muller operated, were shown at a meeting of the orthopedic section of the academy of music, and in each instance the condition was satisfactory. The children were able to walk about without pain, but the retaining casts cannot be removed for months.

THOMAS WINS SUIT.

He Did Not Want His New York Agents to Sell Cotton, but They Did.

New York, Jan. 17.—Michael Thomas of Dallas, Tex., who won the fight for $52,000 in the United States court, the amount of his verdict being the difference between the price of 23,900 bales of cotton on the day his brokers sold him out and that on the day one month later, when he ordered his New York holdings sold, has become quite a figure in cotton circles. Mr. Thomas was bucking a panicky market on a dollar margin, and his brokers advised him to sell. He did not want to do so, and the brokers gave him eight minutes in which to put up $20,000 additional margin. He replied the margin asked was not in the contract, and added an order to hold the cotton and threatened to hold the brokers personally responsible if they disobeyed. The brokers sold the cotton and informed Mr. Thomas. He replied that he did not recognize the transaction, and when the market soared again he ordered a sale. The brokers said they had already sold, and Mr. Thomas came to New York and began suit.

Native of Dallas County

Dallas, Jan. 17.—"Mike" H. Thomas, who won the $52,000 verdict at New York on a cotton sale made against his orders by a brokerage firm, is senior member of the firm of M. H. Thomas & Co., brokers, of this city. He is a native of Dallas county and one of the best known young men of Dallas.

COTTON MILL PROPOSITION.

A Representative of Eastern Capital Will be Here Jan. 22 to Meet Bryan People and Submit Proposition.

Bryan has reached a period in growth where it has become necessary to reach out after industries. It behooves her citizens, no matter what may be their calling or vocation, to get together and co-operate to this end. We have advocated for a long time in the columns of the Eagle, various enterprises which would make up for any loss of trade that Bryan will sustain by reason of the building of railroads through territory that has heretofore contributed to the commercial welfare of Bryan, but with little success towards interesting our people along these lines. Have you business property? Now is the time to do something to prevent it from being vacant. Have you residences to rent? It takes people to live in them. What Bryan needs now is factories; in fact, any and every enterprise, which will swell her population and increase her trade. These matters should be taken hold of with determination and earnestness. Every dollar paid out in this direction will bring three in return in a number of ways, notably by increase of trade and increase of property valuation. We have heretofore advocated a cotton mill for Bryan. The time is ripe for the matter to be again urged. Every citizen should give his hearty co-operation to its establishment. It is only a matter of a short while when cotton mills will be located all over the south and Texas will surely secure a large number of them.

In the past two years cotton mills have been located at West, Itasca, Waxahachie, Belton, Cuero and Corsicana. These mills are running both day and night to fill orders on hand. All of these mills have orders now which will require more than six months of constant running to fill. These mills have paid handsome dividends on the investments. We are informed that of the 224 cotton mills located in North Carolina not one of them paid less than 20 per cent dividend and one mill 40 per cent. Of the mills located in the towns mentioned in Texas, all have paid a dividend of not less than 12 per cent. Why should not the idle capital of Bryan be invested in such dividend-paying enterprises?

The Business League several weeks ago appointed a committee to take up the matter of securing a cotton mill for Bryan. The committee has succeeded in interesting some parties in the plan. Judge A. M. Hatcher, representing eastern capital and cotton mill men, has notified the committee he will meet with the citizens of Bryan on January 22nd and discuss the subject with them and at the same time submit a proposition. He also states that if he secures from the citizens of Bryan proper co-operation Bryan will have no trouble in getting a cotton mill. On January 22 let every business and professional man, mechanic, and laboring man of our town attend the League meeting and make an effort to do something for Bryan. Come and hear the proposition. If reasonable be ready and willing to take hold of it.

A caboose and five cars of an H. & T. C. freight train jumped the track just below the oil mill Sunday afternoon and delayed traffic, including two passenger trains, several hours. The track was torn up, the rails in some instances being turned over. The presence of the steel gang in the Bryan yards enabled repairs to be made earlier than would otherwise have been possible.

THE ANNUAL EVENT OF TWO NATIONS

Yaqui-George Washington The "Laredo's"

Some years since the citizens of Laredo, Texas and New Laredo, Mexico, conceived the idea of fittingly celebrating George Washington's Birthday (February 22) by suitable "Mexican-American" fiestas and parades, and from a small source this has grown to a MAGNIFICENT ANNUAL EVENT, unsurpassed in its splendid surroundings and interesting particulars by anything of a similar nature.

International in its character, located on the border line between the Great Republics, occurring at a season of the year when business cares press lightly, and at a time when weather conditions in that locality are ideal, this event offers unsurpassed inducements to the pleasure seeker.

This year the festivities, will consist of two days continuous festivities, February 22nd and 23rd, and the program, which is very elaborate, will comprise many new and interesting features among which may be mentioned Famous Spanish Bull Fights, Grand Cattle Roping Contests, torchlight parades, embodying typical Mexican and Indian features. Naval fire works, Sham Battle and Capture of the city by the Indians, Military drills and display evolutions Historical Pageants and Trades display, Flower carnival, Band and musical contests, etc.

For this occasion low excursion rates will be in effect to Laredo, aasi for the benefit of those who desire to see more of Mexican life and customs, arrangements have been made for sale of excursion tickets to MONTEREY, MEXICO with ten (10) day's limit, permitting stop-over at Laredo in order to witness the International celebration.

NEW AMBASSADOR.

Baron Von Sternberg Has Been Given Partial Instructions.

New York, Jan. 19.—Baron Speck von Sternberg, according to a Berlin dispatch, received official appointment as ambassador to the United States and has been given his parting instructions by Emperor William. He discussed German-American relations, in course of interview saying, among other things: "The trouble with the German embassy at Washington has been heretofore that it was not sufficiently in touch with the American spirit, or, as the kaiser calls it, 'Amerikanische Geistschuetze.' Personally I admire Dr. van Holleben very much, but he did not grasp the spirit of the American people. Before perfect relations can be secured between Germany, America and England, it will be necessary for the German and American press to be more fair. In German military and naval circles it is hard to uproot the impression that the Monroe doctrine is not an instrument used by the United States to hold South America."

ON SAND BANK.

North German Lloyd Steamer Lahn Is in a Dangerous Situation.

Gibraltar, Jan. 19.—The North German Lloyd's steamer Lahn, Captain Malchow, from Mediterranean ports for New York, went ashore at 4 o'clock Sunday morning at Tumara, 19 miles east of Gibraltar. There was a heavy fog and rain was falling at the time. On board the steamer were 300 salon passengers and 1200 emigrants.

All attempts to float the Lahn have been unsuccessful. The steamer probably will be compelled to trans-ship passengers and cargo. The attempt to pull off the steamer was made at high water by the British Admiralty tug Energetic, the United States cruiser Hartford and the tugs Nawa, Hercules and Hercules, but the Lahn remained fast on the sand bank.

The accident was caused, it is thought, by a misunderstanding of the warning given by the flagman.

Interest Centers in House.

Denver, Jan. 19.—Interest in the senatorial fight in Colorado centers in the report of the house elections committee which has been investigating the contests filed against the seating of seventeen Democrats. The matter was in the hands of the elections committee for several days and while positive evidence has been brought that frauds were committed in several precincts of Arapahoe county, the large majority is received by the Democrats ranging from 2000 to 5000. It is believed will be hard to overcome in every instance.

Tillman's bullet died at Columbia hospital. Mrs. Gonzales was at his bedside when the end came. Soon after midnight septic peritonitis set in, and the physicians announced the condition of the patient most desperate. A solution of formaldehyde was injected as an extreme resort, but gradually the patient grew weaker until death came.

There was universal sorrow throughout the city and state.

New York, Jan. 19.—One of the physicians at St. Vincent's hospital, where a private patient is being treated for blood poisoning by the new method of formaline injection, says it is as yet too early to speak with any certainty as to the outcome of the treatment. So far, it is added, her condition is favorable, her temperature Sunday being recorded as 100 degrees, against 104 degrees on Saturday. Another patient, who was treated with formaline on Friday night in Hahenemann hospital, is reported to be making favorable progress.
